Starting Saturday October 10, 2009!

Art Classes:

Art Exploration (Ages 5-7): Saturdays - 9:00-10:30 – 6 weeks - This class, designed for the youngest of artists, focuses on the exciting experience of being introduced to various materials and processes in art--in some cases for the first time. Each week students will explore a new material, often asking themselves and each other, "Just what can I do with this?" The possibilities are endless! The final week of class will include an open house gallery event on Nov. 14th! The minimum number of students for this class is 8 and the maximum number is 12.

Instructor: Nicky Borden.....Price: $110.00

Mixed Media (Ages 8-10): Saturdays - 10:30 – 12:00 - 6 weeks - In art, the term "mixed media" is used to describe work which was made from more than one art material. In this class, students will expand upon their prior knowledge of materials in order to mix and match for artistic results. New methods and materials will be introduced in the first four weeks. This process allows students to explore various materials before choosing the subject and media for their teacher-approved independent projects during the course's final weeks. The final week of class will include an open house gallery event on Nov. 14th! The minimum number of students for this class is 8 and the maximum number is 15.

Instructor: Nicky Borden.....Price: $110.00

Introduction to Drawing (Ages 8-10): Saturdays - 12:00-1:30 - 6 weeks- This drawing class, designed for younger artists, will expose students to the preliminary concepts of drawing. Each week students will explore form, line, value and other concepts using different drawing materials. For the final sessions, students will embark upon a teacher-approved independent drawing project with the materials and subject of their choice. The final week of class will include an open house gallery event on Nov. 14th! The minimum number of students for this class is 8 and the maximum number is 15.

Instructor: Nicky Borden.....Price: $110.00

Introduction to Drawing (Ages 11-14): Saturdays - 1:30- 3:00 - 6 weeks - This drawing class will expand on basic drawing concepts, although prior lessons are not required. Weekly materials will be the same as those described in the younger class but will be explored on a more sophisticated level. For the final sessions, students will embark upon a teacher-approved independent drawing project with the materials and subject of their choice. The final week of class will include an open house gallery event on Nov. 14th! The minimum number of students for this class is 8 and the maximum number is 15.

Drama Classes:

Theatre Exploration (Ages 5-8): Saturdays 9:00-11:00am - 6 weeks - This acting class is designed to improve confidence and self esteem for early elementary students. In this class we will work on improving speech, articulation, reading and mnemonic skills. We will discover theatre arts through improvisational games, costume/ minor set design, theatre makeup and proper warm-up techniques. We will perform a small show on November 14th for families and friends. The minimum number of students for this class is 8 and the maximum number is 20.
